

Stormwater Workshop

Friday, July 13, 2007

Embassy Suites Hotel ♦ Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Credits: 4 hours

Workshop Agenda

- |                           |  |
|---------------------------|--|
| 7:30am to 8:00am   | Registration  |
| 8:00am to 8:15am   | Workshop Overview and IntroductionsEllen Miller, Assistant Director, City-Parish Planning Commission   |
| 8:15am to 9:00am   | Session 1: EPA Regional 6 RequirementsWilliam K. Honker, Deputy Director for Water Quality Protection Division, Region 6Regulations from the Federal perspective regarding Clean Water Act requirements and the impact upon local government.   |
| 9:00am to 9:45am   | Session 2: Regional Land Use ImplicationJohn H. Pardue, P.E. Professor from Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, LSU; Director for Hazardous Substance research Center, LSU; and Director for Louisiana Water Resources research Institute, LSU.The roles of landuse planning related to BMP applications to protect the water/wetland quality in a regional framework. |
| 9:30am to 10:15am  | Session 3: Regional Watershed ProtectionChris Piehler, Louisiana Greenwaters Program Director, LDEQRegional approach to non-point source pollution mitigation to guide development in an effort to protect and preseve environmentally sensitive areas specifically, wetlands; the importance of a regional approach, not just local solutions.                                       |
| 10:15am to 10:30am | Break   |
| 10:30am to 11:15am | Session 4: Regional BMP Implementation for Gulf CoastHope Herron, Tetra Tech Inc. Baton RougeThe trends in BMP applications for the Gulf Coast and their implication upon water/water quality management related to site planning.  |
| 10:15am to 11:45am | Local Case Study: Alligator Bayou - Frank BonifayWatershed and habitat protection in Louisiana - A Case Study  |
| 11:45am to 12:00pm | Closing RemarksEllen Miller, Assistant Director, City-Parish Planning Commission   |